

BIND25 Conference programme

Saturday 13 September

8am	Registration continues
9am	Welcome – ABC Chair Mark Elphick Housekeeping
9.15am 90 mins	Keynote Chris Woods - Sustainable is simple - what is it we have forgotten?
10.45am	Morning tea & Trade Fair
	Lecture theatre WG126	Small theatre WG129
11.15am 35 mins	Monica Oppen The metal bookbinding, the metal book	Erika Mordek Printers ornament - the bear that travelled through space and time
11.55am 40 mins	Anthony Tedeschi 16 th century German blind-stamped bindings in ATL - identifying and interpreting motifs	Meighan Ellis Page turner - the allure of the photobook
12.30pm	Lunch & Trade Fair
1.30pm 60 mins	Guest speaker: Coleen Curry - Leather dying and decorative surface techniques
2.30pm 30 mins	Makyla Curtis Printing and binding fabric books	Nasim Koohkesh A study of the decorated binding of a 17 th century Persian manuscript
3pm	Afternoon tea & Trade Fair
3.30pm 30 mins	Margaret Woollett Lettering art books	Robin Tait UVC treatments of mouldy books
4pm 60 mins	Caren Florance Keeping it real - letterpress as material persistence	Ngaio Dwerse + Renée Orr illustrated case study on a canvas-bound copy of George Fox's Journal, printed in 1694
5pm	Finish for the day
Dinner	Co-MCs Conference Convenor Chris Stewart and past Chair David Ashman
7pm	Food service begins David Ashman JSMC winners announcement & presentations Ben Elbel Address and Auction between main and dessert courses

Sunday 14 September

9am	Housekeeping
9.15am 90 mins	Keynote Ben Elbel - What can a bookbinder do in the 21st Century?
10.45am	Morning tea & Trade Fair
	Lecture theatre WG126	Small theatre WG129
11.15am 45 mins	Fiona Dempster Building narrative & making meaning in artists' books	George Hajian Emergent voices
12noon 60 mins	Angela Sutton Bookcloth - an underrated material	Louise James Mandela limited edition
1pm	Lunch & Trade Fair
2pm 50 mins	Guest speaker: Sol Rébora - The reversible stub
2.50pm 40 mins	Sarah Bodman in conversation with Terrie Reddish Future Present
3.30pm	Afternoon tea & Trade Fair
4pm 45mins	Debate: In an increasingly digital world, what is the enduring value of the physical book, and how can traditional/modern bookbinders and conservators contribute to it? Moderator: David Ashman Panel: Chris Woods, Ben Elbel, Robin Tait and Caren Florance
4.45pm	Farewell – Tiffany Tucker, Student Grant winner
5pm	Close

Note: late morning and early Saturday afternoon sessions are in two streams for delegates to choose from.